Charlie Murray, Bebe, Peters on Torrance Shows

"Sweet Daddies", "Combat", "The Palm Beach Girl" Features Booked

The ever increasing fan popularity of Lloyd Hughes is evidenced in the decision of First National to feature him in as many productions as possible within the next year. His latest highly successful appearance is as the iceman hero playing opposite Colleen Moore in "Ella Cinders", the current film hit at the Torrance Theatre. It is scheduled to do another picture shortly with Miss Moore.

One of the most exciting scenes in "Sweet Daddies", the attraction at the Torrance theatre Saturday, shows Jack Mulhall, popular screen star, dropping two thousand feet in a flaming airplane into the ocean. The damaged plane is then run down by a speedy yacht.

Neither Mulhall nor his pilot were injured in this episode, although their risk was considerable. "Sweet Daddies" features Charlie Murray, George Sidney and Vera Gordon. It is a briar comedy of mixed partnership, mixed romances and mixed drinks. Alfred A. Santell, who is remembered for his "Classified" and "Bluebird's Seven Wives", directed.

Rugged pitched battles are one of the features of the next picture "Combat" a Universal-Jewel which will be screened at the Torrance Theatre Sunday and Monday with House Peters in the starring role.

Among other virile action there are two thrilling fights which alone stand out sufficiently thrilling to be the climax of the story. But neither of them is the high point of the story. This big moment comes in as thrilling a forest fire as ever was screened.

The first of the fights is a gang affair, a free-for-all in which a crowd of lumberjacks mix up with a gang of lumber poachers who have been stealing trees.

A sparkling, rollicking comedy, laid in the society atmosphere of Palm Beach and other Florida beauty spots, glorified by the bewitching presence and humorous antics of Bebe Daniels, and depending for its thrills upon speed-boat racing is what picture-goers may expect to see at the Torrance Theatre next Tuesday and Wednesday when "The Palm Beach Girl" is thrown on the screen.

POLITENESS FOR BEGINNERS
By DICK CALKINS

WHAT'S WRONG HERE?

ANSWER.—The fool squanders away without credit to himself more than a person of sense spends with both. Think that one over, folks. It is indeed the apex of boorishness to flaunt one's wealth in the face of the public. The true gent practices economy, and never pays cash for his purchases. He charges them.
